1. ENGLISH

RUSKIN
BOND
The Blue Umbrella

Task 1:

Books give us a peek into the worlds that we might not otherwise explore. They also help us explore aspects of ourselves that might otherwise remain untraversed. Reading has several benefits which are unparalleled including vocabulary enrichment, better expression acquisition of values and morals.

Read the novel, The Blue Umbrella by Ruskin Bond, and write a report on it.

The report should include the following:

- 1) Book Cover (Draw an important scene)
- 2) Name of the author
- 3) Character sketches of Binya and Ram Bharosa
- 4) “One man’s trash is another man’s treasure” - to what part of the story does this proverb apply?
- 5) Do you feel it was right of Ram Bharosa to do what he did to get the umbrella?
How far would you go for an object that you desire?
- 6) How do Binya and Ram Bharosa change towards the end of the story?
- 7) What do you learn from this story?

Task 2:

Imagine you are a pet dog whose owner goes to work everyday leaving you alone at home. Write a diary entry of one such day talking about the events and your thoughts about the day as a dog.

Task 3:

Write a short story (500-1000 words) about a time when you lost something when you desperately needed it. In the story, describe what you lost, why you needed it and how you felt.

Task 4:

Imagine you found a magic lamp and a genie popped out of it offering you three wishes. Write the dialogue that takes place between you and the genie including the three wishes.

Get creative and make it colourful using A4 size sheets.
